

Monte Toyon 2018

Friday, January 26th to Sunday, January 28th

Berkeley Folk Dancers will be migrating for the 36th year to Monte Toyon. If you have never gone, join us and see for yourself why the tradition has lasted so long. The Camp is in a lovely, relaxing redwood grove near Santa Cruz. A beautiful wooden floor with a grand stone fireplace is in the dance hall. We will spend our mornings there! Saturday afternoon can be spent walking the beaches, hiking through the redwoods, visiting the nearby towns, or the monarch butterflies at the state park (or napping!). We will, of course, be eating. The welcoming dinner is prepared by the friendly kitchen staff, and is followed by an all-request dance party. The accommodations in Cary Lodge, a two-story building with a lounge where we will have the happy hour before dinner, consists of 4-person dorm rooms with bunk beds. We try to have no more than 3 people in a room. Come to dance, eat, drink, sing, and visit with old friends and make new ones!

The most delightful surprise is to have Tineke and Maurits van Geel as our instructors. Many BFDers know Maurits from Statewide of 2016. Others know Tineke from Stockton Folk Dance Camp. They are both master teachers. Tineke specializes in Armenian dances, and Maurits favors Roma (gypsy) and Dutch dances. Do come and see for yourself what a joyous pleasure it is to have them join us at Monte Toyon.

Space is limited to 50 attendees, and room assignments are made in the order that deposits are received. The rate for the entire weekend will be the same as last year - $240. Without the Friday dinner, the rate is $225. Please complete and return the registration form by December 1, 2017. Final payment is due January 1, 2018. On January 2, non-members may register. The last day for refund of deposits is January 5th and the last day for refund of 50% of full payment is Thursday, January 18th. Charges: Deposit $50 each, or $240 each for the weekend ($225 each without Friday dinner). Questions? Contact Naomi Lidicker (510-524-2871).
